- Flights to Brussels International Airport (<https://www.brusselsairport.be/en/passengers>) from most European cities, then a short train ride to city centre (with nearest train station to conference venue being Brussels Midi) (<https://www.brusselsairport.be/en/passenger/mobility/public-transport/train>).
- Those flying with Ryanair, note that port of call is likely Brussels South, which is actually Charleroi and a bit further away from Brussels (i.e., longer, less regular train connections).
